

CG&S Design Build Earns 3 Awards From NARI

/EINPresswire.com/ Austin home remodeling company lauded as Regional Contractor of the Year in three categories for residential remodeling and addition projects.

CG&S Design Build, an Austin home remodeling company, has received three awards from the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI). The firm has been named the NARI 2013 Region 5 South Central Contractor of the Year (CotY) for residential projects completed in Austin, Texas.

The company won the regional category of Residential Kitchen $80,001 to $120,000 for the project located at 3310 Thousand Oaks Cove. The Residential Interior $100,000 and Over category award was given to CG&S for the 6119 Mountain Villa Cove remodel. The project at 1702 Linscomb Avenue received top regional honors in the Residential Addition Over $250,000 category.

"Our design-build team always strives to make each project our best project through quality workmanship and customer service," said Aida Pollard, business and marketing manager of CG&S Design Build. "We are honored and excited to receive these prestigious awards from within our industry."

All projects considered were completed between July 1, 2011, and April 12, 2012, by NARI members in good standing. Entries were judged based on before and after project photos and descriptions. The expert panel of judges considered aesthetics, craftsmanship, degree of difficulty, problem solving, entry presentation, functionality and innovation in determining the winners.

CG&S Design Build will be honored as a regional winner at the Evening of Excellence Reception on Friday, April 12, 2013 in Kansas City, MO. National winners chosen from among the seven regions will be announced via Webcast during the event.
