What's Crackin Cafe Named Arizona Favorite Brunch Mesa

Mesa scratch-kitchen brunch cafe known for patio dining, mimosa flights, and local sourcing earns recognition backed by 1,814 public reviews at 4.4 stars.

MESA, AZ, UNITED STATES, September 28, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- What's Crackin Cafe has been named Arizona Favorite Brunch Mesa by the Consumer Ratings Institute, based on aggregated public consumer review data. The recognition reflects strong customer feedback for the Northeast Mesa brunch restaurant, which holds a 4.4-star rating across 1,814 reviews.

What's Crackin Cafe is a family-owned scratch-kitchen brunch restaurant that has been cooking and mixing brunch favorites in Mesa since 2017. The cafe is known for a diverse breakfast, brunch, and lunch menu, locally crafted beers, a dozen mimosa options, infused vodka, outdoor patio seating, and a brunch happy hour. Guests can dine in, take out, or order catering for larger gatherings.

Quality and community sit at the center of the restaurant's approach. The kitchen sources from trusted local suppliers with an emphasis on seasonal ingredients, and the owner still works the line while building a menu influenced by Oklahoma, New Mexico, and San Francisco. The space is designed for both solo visits and group celebrations, with a lively room, breezy patio, and Friday-night live music. What's Crackin Cafe is also an autism-certified restaurant with sensory-friendly hours, and it remains independent so that jobs and profits stay in Mesa.

Visitors can find What's Crackin Cafe at 6663 East McDowell Road, Suite 101, Mesa, AZ 85215. Reservations, takeout, catering, and hours are available through the company website.

The Arizona Favorite Brunch Mesa recognition is issued by the Consumer Ratings Institute using publicly accessible consumer reviews. It does not replace professional advice or guarantee future performance, but it highlights consistent public feedback for What's Crackin Cafe in its category and market.
