NEW YORK CITY, NY, UNITED STATES, September 28, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New York playwright Nicholas Hart will present an evening of five original one-act plays on Thursday October 1 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. At the Dramatists Guild Foundation at 520 Eighth Avenue, 24th Floor, New York City.

Mr, Hart, whose play HR/AR was produced at the American Theater of Actors last year, will direct the evening and bring the five works together for a single presentation.

The program will include:
A Crushing Hope – A look at the question of what feels normal in a world of chaos.
Social Media Blackout – A conversation between two close friends who disagree on the ways one should communicate online.
Coming Out On A Limb – A comedy about a man who sort of comes out to his parents.
Waiting On Faith – The story of two cancer patients searching for answers together while sitting in a doctors' waiting room.
The Con-Gamer's Handbook – A play about a man who goes on a date with a telemarketer and discovers an unexpected secret.

The October 1 presentation is free to attend, with limited seating available. Those interested in attending may RSVP hart.nicholas@mail.com

Mr. Hart is also planning a reading of his play Plato & Socrates sometime in late October at the Dramatists Guild Foundation. The play offers a new interpretation of the relationship between Plato, Socrates and the Athenian Council. It explores themes of fear, envy and self-sacrifice.

Nicholas Hart is a member of the Lambs, a professional theatrical club base in New York City.
