Cinnamon Hotels & Resorts invites DISCOVERY members to explore Maldives through GHA DISCOVERY Scavenger Hunt

MALDIVES, September 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cinnamon Hotels & Resorts Maldives is inviting GHA DISCOVERY members to experience four distinctive sides of island life through the GHA DISCOVERY Scavenger Hunt, a global promotion running from 1 September to 31 October 2026.

Bringing together rewards and travel discovery, the promotion gives members the opportunity to earn entries and additional benefits while exploring participating GHA DISCOVERY properties. Across Cinnamon Hotels & Resorts Maldives, this opens the door to four different island experiences, spanning surfing and watersports, thriving house reefs, romantic escapes and quintessential Maldivian adventures.

Participating resorts include Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives, Cinnamon Velifushi Maldives, Cinnamon Hakuraa Huraa Maldives and Ellaidhoo Maldives by Cinnamon.

At Cinnamon Dhonveli Maldives, discovery takes on a more active pace. Located just 20 minutes by speedboat from Malé, the resort combines family-friendly island life with watersports and access to the renowned Pasta Point surf break. Guests can move between days on the water, snorkelling and island experiences, making it an easy introduction to the adventurous side of the Maldives.

Further south, Cinnamon Velifushi Maldives brings together the open ocean and a collection of experiences on and beyond the island. Dolphin watching, island hopping and time spent exploring the surrounding waters offer different ways to experience the destination, while the resort's beach and overwater accommodation provide plenty of room to slow down between adventures.

For couples, Cinnamon Hakuraa Huraa Maldives offers a distinctly different discovery. The adults-only retreat is spread across two islands and places privacy and time together at the centre of the experience. Sunset fishing, island hopping and kayaking across the lagoon create opportunities to explore at an unhurried pace, complemented by the seclusion of an island escape.

At Ellaidhoo Maldives by Cinnamon, much of the discovery begins beneath the surface. Located in North Ari Atoll, the resort is known for its house reef and access to the surrounding underwater world. From snorkelling around the island to diving further afield, Ellaidhoo offers an invitation to experience the Maldives through its marine life and reef environment.
