

Onlinewastexchange.com opens for business

/EINPresswire.com/

Onlinewastexchange.com, a global online B2B trading platform specialising in the exchange of non-hazardous waste and recycling materials, has opened for business.

The website is free to use and is available to all businesses active in the buying or selling of non-hazardous waste and recycling materials. Products that onlinewastexchange.com supports include plastics, paper, metals, glass, wood, rubber, WEEE and textiles.

Businesses are welcome to sign up and use the website for free. Once signed up, users can post 'buy' and 'sell' listings which are then visible to other users. Users can also search existing listings and then contact other parties. This provides users with access to a vast network of trading partners around the globe and facilitates the efficient exchange of materials.

Onlinewastexchange.com is used by waste producers such as manufacturing businesses, waste recyclers and intermediaries. It connects buyers and sellers of waste and recycling materials directly and presents a cost- and time-effective alternative to traditional brokers.

The web address is www.onlinewastexchange.com. Please contact info@onlinewastexchange.com for enquiries.

About Onlinewastexchange

Onlinewastexchange GmbH was founded in 2012 and operates the website www.onlinewastexchange.com. It is Onlinewastexchange's aim to increase global connectivity between producers and receptors of waste materials, which reduces waste disposal, increases recycling rates and generates economic value for buyers and sellers. Onlinewastexchange.com does not act as a principal in a trading activity, i.e. does not directly buy or sell materials itself.
