YORKVILLE, IL, UNITED STATES, September 29, 2026 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jeff Buys Your House, a veteran-owned Chicagoland home buying company, is partnering with the Chicago Wolves through the team's Score for Charity program to support the West Suburban Foundation for Disabled Veterans (WSFDV).

Throughout the 2026-27 season, Jeff Buys Your House will donate $100 to WSFDV for every point earned by Chicago Wolves defenseman Dominik Badinka. The Score for Charity program connects local sponsors with Chicago-area charitable organizations, with donations tied to the performance of selected Wolves players.

The partnership continues Jeff Buys Your House's support of WSFDV, a Wheaton-based nonprofit dedicated to helping provide housing and other living needs to disabled veterans and their families. The organization also helps connect veterans with resources related to mental health, medical care and other support services.

Earlier this year, Jeff Buys Your House supported WSFDV's Rockin' for Our Vets: America 250 event at Cantigny Park. The July 11 event brought together veterans, families and community supporters as part of the foundation's ongoing efforts to raise awareness and support for local veterans.

“Supporting veterans is something that has always been personal to me,” said Jeff Nydegger, owner and CEO of Jeff Buys Your House. “After having the opportunity to support the West Suburban Foundation for Disabled Veterans through Rockin’ for Our Vets this summer, we’re grateful to continue that relationship through Score for Charity. It gives us another meaningful way to support veterans in our community while cheering on Dominik and the Wolves throughout the season.”

Nydegger is a U.S. Army combat veteran who served two tours in Iraq and Afghanistan. His military experience has helped shape the company’s emphasis on service, integrity and commitment to the community.

For Jeff Buys Your House, the Score for Charity partnership provides an opportunity to connect that commitment with a Chicago sports tradition. Each goal or assist recorded by Badinka will add another $100 to the company’s donation to WSFDV.

The Wolves begin their 2026-27 season on the road Oct. 3, with their home opener scheduled for Oct. 10. Fans can follow Badinka’s progress and the resulting donation total throughout the season on the Chicago Wolves’ official Score for Charity page.
