Prepared Canada Sept. 2026 Long Videos

MISSISSAUGA, ON, CANADA, September 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prepared Canada Corp.. has released its September 2026 content update, outlining new video, short-form, and written materials published across its digital platforms over the past month.

New Video Content

As part of its weekly publishing schedule, Prepared Canada released multiple long-form videos addressing topics related to Current Events and Disaster

Management:

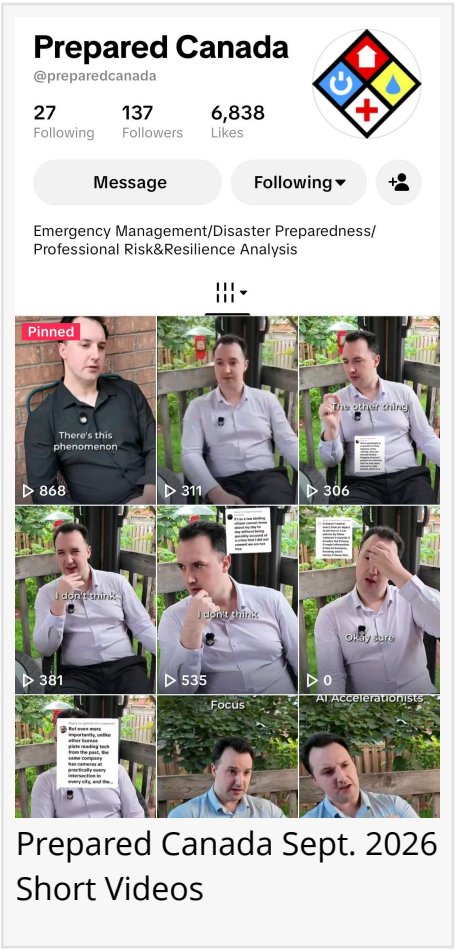
 AI Water Use: How Should We Assess the Risk?
https://youtu.be/q1JaLUlMCQI?si=7OZasSOnN35SrLti
There has been a lot of controversy surrounding the amount of water used in AI processes. This video analyses just how much we know about AI water use, and compares it to other examples such as agriculture.

 Do you really need a degree?
https://youtu.be/zCzPFQLL0c8?si=j1Tj9ZL9SIErWQFO
We have received questions concerning if people should pursue higher levels of education. This video looks at three perspectives as to why an individual would pursue a degree.

 AI Broke Containment. How Worried Should We Be?
https://youtu.be/bGDqMB76TY0?si=TXNB2ucgQsz68e51
Recent news and media coverage has surrounded the “looming threat” of AI Superintelligence. This video calmly assesses the reality of the situation.

 Flock Cameras: Responding to Your Comments
https://youtu.be/hDcnisL3Zll?si=XVQUZ5B8ea1QzBLq
After releasing our video covering the Flock Camera situation, we received many comments in return. This video responds to several of those comments in good faith, providing analysis, agreement, and argument.

 Canada Assessed the U.S. Invasion Risk: What does “Extreme Risk” Mean?
https://youtu.be/C5ZmIYy1i5k?si=MtMPCtL6uRQngkj7
The news has reported that Canada has performed a Risk Assessment of the risk of a potential U.S. Invasion. This doesn't imply anything more than the assessment of a potential high impact, low frequency event.
These videos form part of Prepared Canada’s ongoing effort to provide independent analysis and commentary on current events and systemic challenges.



Prepared Canada Sept. 2026 Short Videos

Short-Form Video Releases

In addition to long-form videos, Prepared Canada published multiple YouTube Shorts throughout the month. These short-form videos include highlights from the organization’s initial platform launch as well as the newly released long-form content.

Website Articles

Prepared Canada also published several articles on its website and Substack page during the month:
 AI Water Use
https://www.prepared.ca/post/ai-water-use
This piece analyses the numbers in AI Water Use, and looks into the environmental cost of it.
 Should You Get a Degree?
https://www.prepared.ca/post/should-you-get-a-degree
This article offers advice on if the reader should consider pursuing a degree, and looks into the reasons why someone would.

 AI Breaking Containment
https://www.prepared.ca/post/ai-breaking-containment
AI broke containment and the responses have ranged from ‘this did not happen, it is all just tech companies trying to raise their stock’ to ‘why have we finished Skynet 0.5?’. This article tries to calmly break it down and analyse it.
