Held September 19 at the Bandshell at Normandale Lake Park in Bloomington, the event brought the community together to raise funds and awareness for individuals and families affected by NF. The event's fundraising page reported approximately $52,900 raised, surpassing its $35,000 goal.

"Supporting the communities where we live and work matters to us," said Phillip Simon, owner of Simon Construction. "We're proud to support the Minnesota NF Walk and grateful to the families, volunteers and organizers who helped make this event a success."

The NF Walk program brings local families and friends together to raise funds, promote awareness and build community. The Children's Tumor Foundation advances research and treatment development for NF.

Simon Construction's sponsorship reflects its commitment to supporting local communities and organizations working to improve the lives of individuals and families.
