Gentle Procedures Nova Scotia Clinic Now Open in Halifax

Dedicated Clinic Offers Pollock Technique™ Circumcision for All Ages

HALIFAX, NS, CANADA, October 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gentle Procedures has opened a dedicated circumcision clinic in the Halifax area, offering Pollock Technique™ circumcision for patients of all ages. The clinic provides outpatient circumcision services for infants, babies, boys, teens and adult men.

> Our focus is on providing clear information before the procedure and appropriate follow-up afterwards, so patients know what to expect throughout the process”

Led by Dr. Peter Coleman, a family physician and Associate Professor at Dalhousie University's Faculty of Medicine, the clinic uses the Pollock Technique™, which incorporates a Mogen clamp, local anaesthesia and a multi-layered approach to pain management.

"Opening a dedicated circumcision clinic in Halifax gives patients and families a local setting to discuss their options and access care," said Dr. Peter Coleman. "Our focus is on providing clear information before the procedure and appropriate follow-up afterwards, so patients know what to expect throughout the process."

The clinic is located at 68 Highfield Park Drive in Dartmouth and serves patients from across Nova Scotia. Appointments can be requested by phone or online. No referral is required. For more information or to request an appointment, visit gentleproceduresns.ca
