HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, October 1, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Village School, a pre-kindergarten through 12th-grade private school in Houston's Energy Corridor, has again earned top state and national recognition in the newly released 2027 Niche.com rankings. The school moved up to No. 2 among private K–12 schools in Texas and placed in the top 20 nationally. It also kept its No. 1 statewide spots for diversity and boarding.

This year's highlights include:

- #1 Most Diverse Private K–12 School in Texas
- #1 Best Boarding K–12 School in Texas
- #2 Best Private K–12 School in Texas (up from #3 last year)
- #18 Best Private K–12 School in America

> Being named the No. 2 private K–12 school in Texas is a real point of pride for our entire community."
> Dr. Ryan Kelly, Head of School

"Being named the No. 2 private K–12 school in Texas is a real point of pride for our entire community," said Dr. Ryan Kelly, Head of School. "These rankings reflect the strength of our academics and the diversity of our community. Above all, they reflect the dedication of our teachers, students, and families, who make The Village School such an inspiring place to learn."

The Niche rankings are widely respected in the education sector. They draw on data from the U.S. Department of Education, college readiness scores, graduation rates, and millions of reviews from students, alumni, and parents. The Village School continues to stand out for its rigorous academics, global perspective, and commitment to both intellectual and personal growth.

As a proud member of the Nord Anglia Education network, The Village School offers global collaborations and learning opportunities through partnerships with world-renowned institutions such as The Juilliard School, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), and UNICEF. The school's student body represents more than 90 nationalities, so students learn from one another while preparing for a globally connected world.
