NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, October 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American Blonde’s new EP, DELTA HOME, helmed by Grammy-nominated producer Lincoln Parish (Cage The Elephant), has arrived. Across the six-song project, the band blends their Mississippi Delta roots with the Blues, Country and Rock ’n’ Roll influences that they grew up on. A string of releases, teasers and high-energy live shows excited fans, and now American Blonde invites new listeners to discover their evolving sound with DELTA HOME. For the first time, the band will offer a project on vinyl through their website and at all future performances. Vinyl pre-order link is live now via the band's website.

To help celebrate the EP’s release, the group delivers “Kiss Me Like The World Is Ending,” a new single and its official music video. The sultry, soulful track captures the magic of living in the moment as if there’s no tomorrow.

Produced by Liberoni Creative x Libby Rafada and filmed in Pensacola, Florida, the video stars Colby and Isabella Montgomery against a backdrop of dramatic beach sunsets and washes of vivid color. As the two dance with abandon, the world around them seems to disappear, capturing their connection and the song’s sense of romance and freedom.

American Blonde's current lineup reflects their musical evolution from teen Pop/Country sensation to a cohesive, five-piece unit that reflects a bold fusion of Country, Rock, Soul, and Southern storytelling. They're ready to share their electric chemistry with their new EP, DELTA HOME.
