Free Directory Lists More Than 500 Upcoming American Mahjong Lessons in 29 States

COLUMBUS, GA, UNITED STATES, October 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American mahjong keeps drawing new players, and the first question after learning the game is usually where to go next. Bam Good Time now gathers more than 500 upcoming American mahjong lessons in 29 states on one free page, bamgoodtime.com/lessons.

Every class on the page comes from the calendar of a club or teacher that runs its classes on Bam Good Time, more than 80 of them. Each listing shows when and where the class meets and links to that club's own sign-up page. The page refreshes from the clubs' calendars every day.

"I kept hearing the same thing from people who'd just learned to play: 'Now where do I go?' So we made one free map where you can find a game, a class or a tournament near you. Nobody should have to learn mahjong and then sit home with their tiles," said Heather Cannon, founder of Bam Good Time.

The lessons come from a much bigger community. More than 400 mahjong clubs in 44 states use Bam Good Time to run sign-ups, waitlists, payments and league scoring, with more than 30,000 members on their rosters. Between them, those clubs have more than 1,700 games and classes on the calendar in the next 30 days.

The site also lists upcoming tournaments, and organizers can add one free with no account. The company designs American mahjong tile sets with artists and makes a free online game, Bam Good Time Mahjong Online, for iPhone and iPad.

Bam Good Time runs clubs, venues, leagues, scrambles and tournaments on one platform, on the web and in apps for iPhone, iPad, Mac and Android. Its built-in assistant, Ask Heather, answers an organizer's questions about events and players and can email members for them.

Clubs can start free.
