

SAP Partners Forge Global Alliance

/EINPresswire.com/ The two international SAP partners Hartung Consult and Sycor have entered into a global cooperation agreement. Effective immediately, the two companies are working together in worldwide SAP projects with a focus on the USA and Asia.

"With Hartung Consult, we have found the right partner in order to strategically strengthen the global SAP business. Hartung adheres to high quality standards just like we do and values long-term, effective business relationships," Dr. Marko Weinrich, CEO of SYCOR GmbH, is pleased to note. Sycor and Hartung Consult will cooperate closely in the implementation of worldwide SAP projects with a focus on the USA and Asia effective immediately. "We are forming a joint employee pool in order to assemble project teams tailored to suit the respective requirements," Weinrich continues.

Ideal complement – powerful synergies

"The Sycor solution and service portfolio is a good match for ours. We benefit from powerful synergy effects and are in an even better position to support customers around the world on their way to internationalization," Jörg Kaschytza, CEO of Hartung Consult is convinced. Both SAP partners have an international presence with branches in Europe, Asia and the USA, established SAP know-how and extensive experience in the implementation of worldwide projects.

Hartung Consult has been realizing implementation, development and rollout projects for SAP solutions across sites for midsize companies for more than 20 years. "We realized the first SAP projects in China back in 1996. Today we have extensive knowledge of local markets and cultures across all of Asia," says Hartung CEO Jörg Kaschytza. Sycor can also look back on more than 15 years of experience with national, international and global SAP projects. The Göttingen-based company with its service and solution portfolio has focused on midsize production companies over time, and supports all horizontal and vertical business processes.
