

New Homes, New Beginning

/EINPresswire.com/ UK (Submitpressrelease123.com - press release) A brand new housing development located in the picturesque town of Lindley is set to open its doors for business in just a matter of weeks bringing the chance of a new beginning for many prospective buyers.

Lindley Park, by award winning house builder Miller Homes, will be a development of over two hundred two, three and four bedroom high quality properties bringing much needed first time buyer and family homes to this popular residential area.

“We are thrilled to be able to welcome visitors to our temporary sales office from mid-March where they will be able to see site plans, property types and prices with the option to reserve their plot now,” said Jan Hanaby area sales manager Miller Homes Yorkshire. “Lindley is a fantastic place to call home and benefits from excellent retail, social and community facilities. It is also ideally placed for commuting across Yorkshire and beyond and enjoying the spectacular countryside which is on the doorstep.”

Lindley Park will also be the first development in the region to have a newly designed sales office which will be built as construction at the sites gets underway. Designed to enhance the customers buying experience the contemporary styled office will allow buyers to concentrate on and enjoy buying their brand new Miller Home.

“We are looking forward to returning to Lindley after the success of our Plover Mills development just a couple of years ago,” said Jan. “Our new development has once again been thoughtfully designed with a variety of styles of homes to suit a host of buyer requirements. And, as always, there will be a selection of purchase initiatives, including Home Exchange and NewBuy to help buyers realise their dreams.”

Lindley Park is located at Weatherhill Road, Lindley, West Yorkshire, HD3 3LD
