BISMARCK, ND -- Shoppers looking for a one of a kind custom engraved toy box can now design their own using Wood Toy Box's exclusive design studio.

Customers can choose from numerous personalization options, which means that it's possible to have a completely one of a kind toy chest. Customers can choose from a laser engraved oak toybox, espresso toybox or a cherry toybox, with a variety of fonts. The laser engraving is done with a resolution of 300dpi, which helps ensure that the engraving is clear and crisp. Shoppers can have a name engraved, or they can take advantage of Wood Toy Box's extensive library of clip art and fonts.

"Although the majority of our toy boxes are engraved with a child's name, we can actually create a completely personal design. If you have an idea of what you'd like on your toy chest, send us an email with your thoughts. We'll create a mock up of the design and make sure you're completely satisfied with the design before we engrave your personalized toy box," said Bob Beck, founder of Wood Creations (<http://www.woodtoybox.com/>).

Each handcrafted toy chest is made out of solid wood -- no particle board. The oak chests are framed with solid oak with oak veneered panels. The cherry and espresso toy chests are made from solid birch wood. Each toy chest is packed securely so that it remains safe during the shipping process and arrives ready to assemble by the customer. Assembling the toy chest only requires about 20 minutes.

In addition to its handcrafted toy chests, Wood Toy Box also has a number of manufactured toy boxes and hand painted toy boxes. These chests are smaller than the handcrafted versions, but still offer personalization options through high grade acrylic adhesive letters. Wood Toy Box will custom cut each letter and include them with the chest so that customers can attach the letters themselves.

Wood Toy Box provides free shipping on toy chests throughout the Lower 48 United States. Shipping to Canada is also included; however customers will need to prepay broker fees before their toy chest can be shipped. This prepaid fee ensures that there are no further broker, duty and tax fees upon delivery.

"With so many different options, our customers can truly design a one of a kind toy chest. If you're looking for a toy box that can't be found anywhere else, check out our design studio and see just what we can do for you," said Beck.
