Guardian Mortgage Company is pleased to welcome new hire Rolanda Legg. As the company's Chief Compliance Officer, Ms. Legg will bring her expertise to uphold Guardian's untarnished reputation under the new regulatory environment for both the retail and correspondent lending divisions.

"New government regulations and mandates have created a time of uncertainty for the mortgage and lending industry," says Cari McCue, COO for Guardian Mortgage Company. "With her proven track record in finance and mortgage lending, Ms. Legg is precisely the person to spearhead the task of incorporating these new standards into Guardian's mortgage lending process."

Ms. Legg brings with her over 30 years of mortgage and financial industry experience. Most recently she provided consulting services to banks and mortgage companies through her company, Mortgage Services Suites.

Ms. Legg is originally from Oklahoma and attended Central State University. Her professional experience includes serving as a Senior Consultant for Deloitte & Touche and SVP at Coppermark Bank in Oklahoma City.

"Guardian has an unyielding commitment to quality service, first and foremost," states Legg. "It's this commitment and emphasis on meeting all of the regulatory and agency guidelines, while still maintaining their exceptional standards for quality and customer satisfaction, which attracted me to the position."

Ms. Legg will officially begin her duties as Chief Compliance Officer on April 1, 2013 and will office out of the Guardian Plano, Texas office.
