Air Duct Cleaning Denver is a crucial yet overlooked part of standard home maintenance. It is very important to maintain clean Air Duct in your home to minimize all potential health risks. Air Ducts in Denver are a perfect breeding ground for dust mites and many other micro-biological contaminants. Dust easily accumulates overtime in areas that don't get cleaned often. It is shocking what can be found in an Air Duct System that hasn't been cleaned in 5, 10 or 20 years?

Neglecting to clean air ducts in Denver can result in serious health hazards. Air Ducts in most homes are infected with these types of common air pollutants: dust mites, pollen, and airborne mold spores. These pollutants at high amounts can cause many illnesses ranging from the common headaches and sneezing to serious lung defects. Young children, the elderly and people with asthma, allergies and other respiratory ailments are a lot more vulnerable to these illnesses. Vacuuming and disinfecting Air Ducts in Denver can help in preventing these contaminants from becoming dangerous to the home owner's health.

FACTS:

- 1."Fifty percent of all illnesses are either caused or aggravated by polluted indoor air." American College of Allergists.
- 2."Children, elderly people, and people with breathing problems, allergies, and lung diseases are particularly susceptible to disease-causing biological agents in the indoor air." EPA, Dept. of Consumer Affairs
- 3."If you have a ducted heating and cooling system, make sure you clean the ducts once a year." The Better Heating-Cooling Council
- 4."Indoor air is found to be up to 70 times more polluted than outdoor air." EPA
- 5."Nine out of ten system failures are caused by dirt and dust." LCES
- 6.Air duct cleaning may even be covered by your medical insurance.

A residential Denver air duct cleaning job takes just a few hours and is a surprisingly clean and routine process. While making the home's air safer, duct cleaning Denver can also reduce heating and cooling costs by allowing the system to operate more efficiently. Moreover, duct cleaning Boulder can cut maintenance costs because a clean system has fewer breakdowns.
