

IT Governance re-launch Indian website

/EINPresswire.com/ IT Governance has re-launched their Indian website with a new name and Indian domain, www.itgovernance.in. The re-launched site offers a wide range of electronic, downloadable IT governance information, books, reports, guides and tools to meet the needs of organisations, directors, managers and practitioners.

Alan Calder, CEO and founder of IT Governance says, "We are thrilled to be further integrating our business with India and our Indian customers. IT Governance serves a global customer base and India is a market of real importance to us. Our aim is to make our re-launched Indian site the one-stop-shop in India and South Asia for comprehensive IT governance information, advice, guidance, books and tools."

The change of website address from www.itgovernanceasia.com to the more specific www.itgovernance.in demonstrates the commitment and focus that IT Governance continues to make in the Indian market.

IT Governance has been designing, and successfully implementing, cost-effective ISO 27001 information security management systems since the standard was first introduced. The company writes and publishes at length on IT governance subjects, including: information security, IT service management, project governance, regulation and compliance.

IT Governance have developed a range of leading-edge tools for IT governance, information security and regulatory compliance. These include the company's own books, toolkits, staff awareness e-learning courses and software tools. Customers will also find a range of books and resources from many of the world's most respected authors and organisations which have been carefully selected to match the needs of the Indian market at www.itgovernance.in.
