"Today, we are proud to announce the launch of our new online store", said Tracy Vance, Founder and Owner of Upatoi Trading Partners, LLC, "After months of design and testing, I am proud to say that Cedar Creek Mercantile is now open for business. Cedar Creek Mercantile is fashioned after the "old style general stores" of yesteryear with a special focus on products that are American Made, and/or are manufactured or produced from reclaimed or sustainable sources. Our primary objective is to always offer our customers quality products at reasonable prices, with personalized customer service, regardless of origin, but we do make every attempt to partner with manufacturers that make their products in the United States. We offer a broad selection of products, and currently offer a great selection of coastal lamps, rustic home décor, as well as unique gifts, and most are handcrafted right here in the United States. We look forward to the relationships we establish with our customers"

In the coming months, Cedar Creek Mercantile plans to expand the number of category offerings, as well as expanding the product selection in the existing product categories. Cedar Creek Mercantile will also be active in social media, and can be found on Facebook, Twitter, and the Cedar Creek Mercantile Blog. Each social media outlet can be accessed directly from their home page.
