Hameray Publishing has just announced the launch of the “Joy Cowley Classroom Giveaway;” a contest created to honor special teachers and the hard work they do in the classroom. Anyone can nominate their favorite classroom for a chance to win ninety new titles from best-selling children’s author and creator of the internationally-beloved Mrs. Wishy-Washy series, Joy Cowley. In addition to the books from Ms. Cowley’s newest series – The Joy Cowley Collection and the Joy Cowley Early Birds – the winner will also receive three audio CDs and a set of Mrs. Wishy-Washy & Friends finger puppets.

“We are thrilled to share Joy Cowley’s unique style and imaginative voice with a new generation of budding Mrs. Wishy-Washy fans,” says Kevin Yuen, President of Hameray Publishing.

Ms. Cowley, who was just named a “Living Treasure” of the Marlborough region in her native New Zealand, is a world-renowned author known for her over 30 years of fostering “learning with laughter” in children. These two new series showcase the best of Joy Cowley’s storytelling with her characteristic humor, charm, and rhythmic language. The books are leveled for beginning readers in kindergarten to 2nd grade.

“We love that many people who grew up reading Joy’s original Mrs. Wishy-Washy stories have themselves become teachers,” continues Yuen. “They are now introducing Mrs. Wishy-Washy & Friends to a new generation and it’s wonderful that Hameray can be a part of it.”

Nominations are being accepted now through April 30th when a winner will be chosen. Only residents (and classrooms located) within the United States and Canada are eligible. Follow the Nominate your favorite deserving teacher or classroom to possibly win ninety new titles from best-selling children’s author and creator of the internationally-beloved Mrs. Wishy-Washy series, Joy Cowley.
