/EINPresswire.com/ AlignedSigns.com has been making 'waves' lately, literally. Now with the arrival of spring, the networking and self-awareness site is holding a gathering titled 'Get to Know YOU!' on 13th April for enhanced personality mindfulness.

AlignedSigns.com has been making 'waves' lately, literally. The site recently held a largely successful Valentine's Day Contest. They followed it up with expanding functionality of the site to make it more user-friendly. Now with the arrival of spring, the networking and self-awareness site is holding a gathering titled 'Get to Know YOU!' on 13th April for enhanced personality mindfulness. Check out <http://www.alignedsigns.com/Events.htm> for details.

Topics covered in this gathering include the Myers Briggs personality types and how it can be good for career, relationships and even a better understanding of oneself. Founder of AlignedSigns.com, Jessica Baker and motivational speaker Jessica Roman will be there to answer questions.

And of course, there will be snacks, beverages and music! Partners in this event and advocates of being healthy in mind and body include:

1. EBOOST the most loved energy supplement. Natural Energy - Green Tea, Vitamins & Super Nutrients
2. Natures-Gate sells organic and natural health and beauty products for hair, skin, and more.

AlignedSigns.com was launched with the vision of creating higher personal understanding. And the event is in line with this objective that more knowledge results in better decision making. This empowerment leads to a more content, peaceful and in general, a happier individual.

"It's easy to get caught up with life's dealings. We want you to stop for a moment and put the most important person in your life first, YOU. By knowing yourself, you are building the cornerstone of successful relationships," Jessica Baker stated.

AlignedSigns.com has been using the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator \(MBTI\) - a scientific psychometric assessment that provides valuable insights about personality to its subscribers. The popularity of MBTI has even led the site to increase access to it to a wider audience.

To add a different dimension to their insights, AlignedSigns.com uses Chinese Zodiac and Western Astrology as well. Further, the site also has a social networking functionality as they enable members to connect with and meet people who share common interests, tastes and even personality types, if they so choose.
