

Interface Incorporated To Exhibit at FBC Government Procurement Conference

/EINPresswire.com/ Business to Government Marketing Company will showcase its full services at the Federal Business Council's Government Procurement Conference

FAIRFAX, Virginia – April 25, 2013 marks The Federal Business Council's 23rd Annual Government Procurement Conference (GPC) to be held at the Walter Washington Convention Center in Washington DC. GPC is a national conference fostering business partnerships between the Federal Government, prime contractors, and small businesses.

Interface Incorporated, an exhibitor at this year's conference, helps companies build federal government business and obtain and manage GSA Contracts. Mark Downs, of Interface Incorporated comments, "We expect a strong turnout this year across both government and industry. The Washington DC location should increase attendance of key government personnel, whose travel may have otherwise been restricted due to budgetary restraints".

Now in its 23rd year, GPC has become a premier event for small business throughout the United States. Participating firms can market their products and services to procurement representatives and small business specialists from various federal agencies, and take advantage of educational sessions focused on doing business with the government.
