

Federal Judge Halts Fracking in California

/EINPresswire.com/ April 19, 2013 /EIN News/--A federal judge has ruled that the U.S. Bureau of Land Management violated the law when it issued permits for fracking in Monterey and Fresno Counties in California. A spokesman for the Center for Biological Diversity, which, along with the Sierra Club, brought the suit, said, "This important decision recognizes that fracking poses new, unique risks to California's air, water, and wildlife that government agencies can't ignore. This is a watershed moment—the first court opinion to find a federal lease sale invalid for failing to address the monumental dangers of fracking." Read the story here:
