

EternalTourist Offers Private Guided Limo Minivan Tours in Rome with American Licensed Tour Guide

/EINPresswire.com/ Private guided limo and minivan tours of Rome, Italy designed with client comfort in mind conducted by American licensed tour guide for small groups of family and friends with special attention to children and seniors.

EternalTourist announces the launch of its revamped website featuring superior Rome private guided limo tours designed with client comfort in mind.

Clients will not be part of a large, impersonal group. All tours are exclusively for the requesting party (ideally 7 people maximum for city tours) to assure them a special experience and make their Rome private guided tour the highlight of their vacation.

These tours are suited to small groups of family, friends, partners, and can be tailored for parties with children and seniors.

At the Vatican Museums/Sistine Chapel and Colosseum clients will skip the line with reserved tickets.

All tours are conducted by Mayta Munson, professional Rome private tour guide with a notable sense of humor and the distinction of being one of the few Americans to have earned the tour guide license in Rome.

Mayta has illustrated the wonders of this fabled place to thousands of visitors on Rome private guided tours, sharing with them her passion, enthusiasm and knowledge of what some consider the world's most beautiful city.

The private itineraries are flexibly designed to clients' preferences. With an a.c. Mercedes limo or minivan and courteous driver and Mayta as their Rome personal tour guide clients will visit the city's celebrated monuments, out-of-the-way places, and stunning hilltop vistas leisurely and efficiently.

If clients want to enjoy lunch, a snack or artisanal ice cream along the way Mayta will suggest the best places, including local trattorie or cafes off the beaten track in characteristic neighborhoods one might miss on a standard group tour.

Here are testimonials from Ron & Jane Ball, Baltimore, Md, and Diane & Terry Pannkuk, Santa Barbara, Ca, in praise of Mayta and EternalTourist:

"Jane and I are back at home following a fantastic trip. We must thank you for the truly great tour you put together and conducted for us... I cannot imagine how we could see so much in such a short amount of time. Only through your knowledge and wonderful planning was it possible. Your knowledge of the city and its history is amazing... The visit to the Vatican was especially enjoyable because of your ability to make everything so much more understandable... Much credit goes to you and your skills. Hope you will continue to guide tours and introduce people to the wonders of Rome. What a great way to start our vacation!! Ron & Jane Ball"

"I just wanted to let you know what an outstanding time Terry and I had with you for our two and a half days in Rome. Your knowledge of both Roman history and art history brought everything to life for us. We had such limited time and so much that we wanted to see and do, I can't even imagine doing it without your help. From having the car and driver meet us at the airport to your knowledgeable organization of our sightseeing itinerary, to even the restaurants you recommended, everything was perfect.

"I loved that we could ask you detailed questions about history and art and get in depth answers rather than memorized 'tour talk'. You were an absolute delight and a huge wealth of knowledge. Our two and a half days in Rome could have been a nightmare with so much to see and do, but you made it a wonderful experience.

"I have given your name to my travel agent and highly recommended you. Thank you again so much for making our time in Rome so special. Best regards, Diane and Terry Pannkuk"
