GreenPointe Homes was recently honored from both the Citrus County Builder's Association and Tampa Builder's Association 2013 Parade of Homes for its model home, The Pinemore, at the master-planned community of Southern Hills Plantation Club.

Awards for the Citrus County Builder's Association's Parade of Homes include:

- 1st Place – $299,000-$345,000 price range
- WOW Award – Patio and Golf Course View

Awards for the Tampa Bay Builder's Association's Parade of Homes include:

- Merit Award – $301,000-$350,000 price range

GreenPointe Homes partnered with BSB Design to create the Pinemore model's convenient design for a casual lifestyle while maintaining the architectural integrity of Southern Hills Plantation Club. The interior and exterior living spaces of The Pinemore were designed by award-winning design firm Sisler Johnston Interior Design. A stunning 41-foot covered verandah with a summer kitchen offers outdoor living at its finest. The indoor kitchen features designed cabinetry with granite counter tops, spacious island and GE appliances including a gas range/self-cleaning oven combo, microwave and Energy Star rated-dishwasher. The home's two-car garage also includes additional flexible space that could be used for a golf cart, home office or hobby room. The Pinemore spans almost 3,000 square feet of comfortable and flexible living space and pricing starts at $240,000.

"It is an incredible honor to have been recognized by both the Tampa Builder's Association and the Citrus County's Builder's Association as a winner in this year's Parade of Homes," said Roger Postlethwaite, president of GreenPointe Homes. "We are pleased to be part of this elite group consisting of the finest in building and development and hope that the community will stop by and pay us a visit at Southern Hills Plantation Club."

Residents of Southern Hills Plantation Club enjoy numerous amenities, including tennis, swimming, spa/salon and fitness facilities which all offer a full-service staff. Food and beverage service include poolside service and casual dining at Pete's Grille along with the grand dining room and banquet facilities at the clubhouse. An onsite lifestyles director coordinates a variety of member events and activities for all ages throughout the year.
