This distinction is given to the top lawyers in the state following a patented, comprehensive review by Super Lawyers and peers.

Morris Lilienthal, a Huntsville, Alabama personal injury attorney, was recently named a Super Lawyers Rising Star.

The Super Lawyers Rising Star designation is a prestigious distinction awarded only to the top 2.5% of the practicing attorneys in the state. Attorneys are chosen through a rigorous, patented selection process. After being nominated, candidates are reviewed and evaluated by both their peers and the Super Lawyers research department. The Rising Stars list is unique in that all of the attorneys included are 40 years of age or younger or have been in practice fewer than 10 years.

By objectively evaluating attorneys across the country, Super Lawyers gives the public a trusted resource to help them find an exceptional attorney.

This award marks the second occasion that Lilienthal has been named an outstanding lawyer based upon his legal ability, professional standards, and peer recognition. Earlier this year, Lilienthal was selected as a Top 40 Under 40 Litigation Lawyer for the state of Alabama, a designation given by the American Society of Legal Advocates to the top 2% of the lawyers in the state.

"My primary goal has always been to provide the best service to my clients, and I am extremely pleased to be recognized for my commitment to clients and professional achievements," said Lilienthal.

Lilienthal practices at the law firm Martinson & Beason, P.C., a well-established and highly regarded firm located in Huntsville. Through his personal injury practice, Lilienthal provides excellent service and guidance to injured individuals, helping them obtain the compensation they need.
