ENERGY & SECURITY IN AFRICA

Nigeria welcomes the first CMF Homeland & Security Forum in Africa

For the first time in its history, Crans Montana Forum organizes an exceptional session of the CMF Homeland & Security Forum in Nigeria, February 6 to 8 2014.

Nigeria, major destination in Africa for business and foreign investment, is challenged by numerous and complex concerns. Energy supply routes Security, Fight against Terrorism & Piracy are on the top of both Nigerian and Global agenda.

Upon the invitation of the Rivers State Government, the first CMF Homeland & Security Forum in Africa will be hosted in Port-Harcourt.

With a strong oil Industry, Rivers State is one of the most dynamic States in Nigeria, promoting a safe and secure environment for Business investment.

Being a multi-dimensional platform, the Homeland & Global Security Forum brings together the World's Public and Private sectors, Governments, International Organizations, Civil Society and Businesses.

About the Crans Montana Forum :

The Crans Montana Forum is a Swiss International Organization, whose importance and prestige have been well-established since 1986.

Its philosophy is lies in its motto: "Committed to a more Humane and Impartial World". The Crans Montana Forum works for the promotion of international cooperation and contributes to global growth while ensuring a high level of stability, equity and security.

Many Forums are organized worldwide the year long (Brussels, Baku, Vienna, Geneva, Crans-Montana, Bucharest, Zagreb, Roma, Sarajevo, Tirana, Athens, Malta, Bahrain etc...) which represent very unique occasions for Business and Governments to implement their strategies, strengthen their relationship with their partners, meet with potential ones and build new cooperation opportunities.

Thus, the Crans Montana Forum works in close cooperation with institutional partners such as the UN, UNESCO, UNIDO, ISESCO, NATO, the European Union, the Council of Europe, the African Union, ECOWAS, ECCEAS, MOWCA, OPEC-Fund ... and with all major international Companies.
