

Four Seasons Home Improvement Celebrates Milestone

/EINPresswire.com/ Washington, DC area home improvement and roofing contractor celebrates 700th job in Montgomery Village, Maryland.

ROCKVILLE, Maryland – Four Seasons Home Improvement Company, Inc., a licensed general contractor specializing in roofing and residential exterior remodeling, has announced that it recently completed its 700th job in Montgomery Village, Maryland.

Montgomery Village is a planned community of 40,000 homes located in the heart of Montgomery County that was developed in the late 1960s to 1970s. Four Seasons Home Improvement has been doing work in Montgomery Village since 1976. The company's staff members recently discovered that they had reached a milestone shortly after finishing a roofing installation project.

"Over the years, we've completed many different home improvement projects in the Montgomery Village community," said David Peters, General Manager of Four Seasons Home Improvement. "As the leading home improvement contractors, we've handled many patio improvements, siding and trim work."

Four Seasons Home Improvement has also installed patio sliding glass doors, and completed countless roofing and gutter systems replacements in the area.

"Montgomery Village homeowners trust us with their home improvement projects because we have expert knowledge of the construction requirements and we take care of the homeowners association process for customers, so it's an easy choice," said Peters. "Those homes are like our own."
