

Kids, Wealth & Consequences Event Held By Financial Advisor Steven F. St. Pierre

/EINPresswire.com/ Steven F. St. Pierre, a financial advisor based in Manchester, New Hampshire, recently held a special event for clients on the importance of teaching children financial responsibility.

Each year, Manchester, NH LPL financial advisor Steven F. St. Pierre conducts a series of "C-Tips," short "confidence tips" that give insight to clients regarding a variety of valuable financial topics. As part of his efforts to inspire and educate, St. Pierre recently hosted a special client event covering this year's "Kids, Wealth & Consequences" C-Tip series, based on the book of the same title written by Richard Morris and Jayne Pearl.

"Kids, Wealth & Consequences" explores the methods that affluent parents can implement to share their values, knowledge, and beliefs with their children. The book shares the importance of educating and motivating children in order to ensure that they become financially responsible.

During St. Pierre's "Kids, Wealth & Consequences" event, guests were joined by Kenneth Sole, PhD, social psychologist, and contributor to the book. Sole presented his professional insights on the book's techniques and heard questions from guests regarding the challenges they face. Several important topics discussed at the event include the difference between helping and supporting, the damage that unresolved issues can cause, and the significance of starting early when teaching.

"I am thrilled with the outcome of this event, which was very well-received by all who attended" said St. Pierre. "We were fortunate to be joined by Kenneth Sole, who shared a number of illuminating insights. I look forward to conducting the next informative special event for clients."
