

Provillus Hair Loss - Provillus Hair Regrowth For Men and Women

/EINPresswire.com/ Provillus is the powerful blend of natural herbs which promotes the natural hair regrowth and prevents hairs from falling. Poor diet, stress, atmospheric pollution and many other factors damage hairs and make them fall. Scientifically health experts found that it is a hormone called DHT which is responsible for hair loss. The increased amount of DHT hormone let the hairs fall from scalp. It grows at the scalp and blocks the food and water going to the hairs. This practice shrinks hair follicles making them weaker and weaker until they die and fall from scalp. Health experts are working to find out that is there any way to stop DHT hormone from damaging hair follicles?

Provillus Hair Loss

Lots of hair loss treatments available in market, are designed to block the DHT formation at the hair scalp but only few of them really work. Provillus also works as DHT blocker and prevents hair damage. The best thing about Provillus is that it offers different formulations for men and women. It identifies the particular reason for hair loss in men and women and treats hairs of men and women accordingly. The dual action formula of Provillus stops hairs from falling and stimulate the hair regrowth.

The two step formula consists of a hair regrowth supplement and a hair regrowth spray to promote a healthy, shiny and all time beautiful hairs. The hair regrowth supplement consists of pills which are to be consumed orally. Hair regrowth supplement blocks DHT formation over the scalp, prevents hairs from falling by providing hairs with extra nutrients and making them healthy and strong enough to fight against DHT hormone. Provillus hair regrowth spray is a liquid which is to be applied directly on the hair scalp. It cleans the scalp, prepares it for hair regrowth. It stimulates the hair regrowth, grows hairs thick, strong, healthy and makes them look shiny and beautiful.

Health experts have tested the product clinically and verified it as safe and beneficial formula for hairs. It prevents hairs damage, hair loss, nourishes overall hair health and let you give the confidence of beautiful hairs. Approved by FDA, this product is used by many customers since a long time. All the customers have reported a significant reduction in hair loss, thick, strong and beautiful hairs in a very short time period with no negative side effects.
