

Online Bookmakers Announce Champions League Final Betting Offers

/EINPresswire.com/ London, May 24, 2013 – A leading online sports betting website reports that several bookmakers have announced special betting offers and promotions for the UEFA Champions League final.

The betting site www.Free-Bet-Advice.com, has secured several Champions League betting offers for its visitors, through its partnerships with leading online bookmakers and sportsbooks.

The Champions League final is one of the biggest betting events of the year, with hundreds of millions of pounds expected to be wagered on the event. Last year's final saw nearly £40million traded on Betfair alone, and many experts expect this year's event to be even bigger.

Most online betting fans already know that they can receive free bets when they first join an online bookmaker, however many do not take advantage of the ongoing promotions that are available when betting on specific major sporting events. These promotions are available to both new and existing customers. Big name bookmakers including Coral, Ladbrokes and Bet Victor will often offer to refund losing bets on specific betting markets if a particular scenario occurs.

For example, this year Bet Victor are offering to refund losing bets on the "Correct Score", "First/Last Goalscorer" or "Scorecast" markets if a team comes from behind to win the final. Ladbrokes, one of the biggest bookmakers in the world, will refund losing bets on the same markets if Bayern Munich do not win the Champions League.

These promotions offer punters an excellent opportunity to potentially bet on the event risk-free.

Mark Davies, webmaster of Free Bet Advice, commented: "We are delighted to be able to bring our visitors this excellent range of Champions League betting offers. The final is always one of the most popular sporting events of the year in terms of betting volume, and this year will be no exception. What's more we have two very evenly matched teams who both like to play open, attractive football, so it's sure to be a fantastic match. Best of luck to all our visitors who are betting on the event, and enjoy the game."

The Champions League final is being played at Wembley Stadium in London on Saturday 25th May 2013. Kick off is 7.45pm. The match is being shown live on ITV1.

The Champions League betting offers can be found at <http://www.free-bet-advice.com/champions-league-betting-offers>. This page will be updated whenever new promotions are released, and features offers from bookmakers including Ladbrokes and Coral. All promotions are valid right up to kick off.
