

Regents Park Apartments Brings Neighbors Together With Planned Special Events

/EINPresswire.com/ Successful community events in Chicago include a fashion show, running club and children's storyteller; more are planned.

CHICAGO, Illinois – Regents Park Apartments in Hyde Park, Chicago is planning several events for residents in the upcoming months. This follows a strong turnout at several community activities through the fall, winter and early spring.

"Community events bring neighbors together," said Greg Guttman, marketing director for @1Regents Park Apartments. "We try to plan fun activities for the different age groups and help people get to know each other."

Some of the events featured over recent months included Bingo, a running club, children's storyteller, a petting zoo, Mardi Gras celebration, a fashion show, mixology classes and a wine tasting. Residents also gather together to volunteer for community service, attend book club meetings and participate in a running club. These activities are reserved for tenants of Regents Park Luxury Apartments. Upcoming planned activities for residents include a family-friendly pot luck dinner, and arts and crafts for the kids.

According to StreetAdvisor.com, Hyde Park is rated as the 5th Best Neighborhood in Chicago. Regents Park Luxury Apartments is owned by MAC Property Management and is now accepting future tenant applications to fill vacancies.
