

Guardian Mortgage Supports Oklahoma Disaster Relief Efforts

/EINPresswire.com/ Guardian Mortgage supports those affected by the Oklahoma tornado and invites others to help support the Red Cross in their relief efforts

Guardian Mortgage Company, a Texas and Michigan independent mortgage lender, and its employees are seeking help in raising relief funds for those affected by the May 19th Moore, Oklahoma tornado.

Guardian Mortgage employees already took the initiative to help their Oklahoma neighbors and are now reaching out to their mortgage customers, mortgage associations and lending partners in an effort to raise additional funds to help further support those who were affected by the devastation of the tornado.

During an internal effort held on Friday, May 24, Guardian and its employees, through employee donations and a company matching program, raised over $1,500 during a 20-minute drive period to support the cause.

To further help those in need, Guardian Mortgage invites its customers and lending partners to participate in this effort by texting the phrase REDCROSS to 90999. Each text will send a $10 donation to the Red Cross in an effort to better support those hit by this tragic event.
