

Father's House Educational Foundation Supports Living Stones Orphanage

Father's House Tours Teach the Bible in the Context of Israel

DALLAS, TX, June 3, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "The Father's House Foundation is proud to support the Living Stones Orphanage as it offers life and opportunity to lost and unwanted children. We have supported this wonderful ministry for several years, and with your support look forward to supporting them for years to come," says Byron Stinson, Founder of the FHEF.

Living Stones Orphanage, located in Davao City, Philippines, cares for about 30-40 children each year. Some of them go back to their biological parents, others are adopted locally or internationally, and still others continue to call Living Stones home year after year. Of the children residing at Living Stones Orphanage, up to half of the residents at any given time are infants.

The vision at Living Stones is to see the lives of children at risk infused with Godly principles, honorable convictions, and integrity for living, by providing the basic necessities of love, healthcare, education, and a healthy environment. "An investment in the Father's House is an investment in the Living Stones Orphanage and in changing lives," says Ken Sandberg, Director of Living Stones Orphanage.

Ken and his wife Cris are the directors of Living Stones Orphanage (LSO) in Davao City. They, along with the staff at LSO, take care of these orphaned or abandoned kids and help find adoptive Christian homes for them, often in Western nations. Living Stones Orphanage currently has 22 children in its care and more than 40 kids came through the home in the past year! A dozen Living Stones children were adopted into loving homes in the USA, Canada, Finland, Australia, and the Philippines over the past few years. You can visit the website at www.livingstonesorphanage.org for pictures and testimonies. Living Stones Orphanage is also on Facebook.

The Father's House is thrilled to support an organization like Living Stones Orphanage that is helping to provide hope where hope was lost. A non-profit 501c3 organization, the Father's House Educational Foundation exists to encourage the people of God by supporting ministries actively helping people in need and by creating educational experiences that teach biblical truth in the context of the Bible's land and culture. Father's House offers group educational journeys to Israel as well as grants for church leaders to experience the Lord's land for a greatly reduced price.

The mission statement of Father's House Educational Foundation is:

To bless God's people and increase their joy by creating experiences and supporting causes that

- teach biblical truth and heritage in the context of the Bible's land and culture,
- practice biblical ministry and mercy today, and
- impart biblical legacies of faith for the benefit of future generations

in order to make the Father's unchanging message more relevant, practical, and personal from generation to generation. (www.fathershousefoundation.com)
