

Entrepreneur Podcast Network Lands Interview with Trucking Authority Andy Ahern

Ahern & Associates CEO Andy Ahern was recently interviewed by the online entrepreneur podcast resource on the trucking industry, and how to run a business effectively.

PHOENIX, AZ, May 29, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This month, Ahern & Associates CEO Andy Ahern sat down with The Entrepreneur Podcast Network in an exclusive interview. In the interview, the trucking industry expert discussed his business philosophies, demonstrating his business acumen and exhaustive knowledge of an extremely competitive industry. In the interview, the trucking industry authority discussed his business philosophies and knowledge with regard to everything from the procedural pitfalls selling a business to the mental processes that owners in need must go through.

Andy's dedication to the transportation industry featured prominently, raising many discussions specific to the trucking industry such as CSA compliance and the proper utilization and judgment of trucking metrics and logistics. However, many topics are touched upon that are universal for all business owners including management and planning practices, the proper approach to industry difficulties and the unexpected. As a fixture in his specific industry, and with over 40 years in the industry, Ahern's advice comes from many years of analyzing and recognizing what makes a business successful in the long run.

Ahern joins a long line of successful business owners interviewed by the Entrepreneur Podcast Network, a weekly show with over 17,000 global listeners and considered by many as a valuable teaching tool for business owners, both new and experienced. The Entrepreneur Podcast Network reaches out to industry leaders and influencers to get insightful and useful business information for aspiring business owners, allowing them to share their expertise and give advice on all aspects of business and industry.
