

Dayton, OH Law Firm Lovett & Lovett Co., LPA Will Present Estate Planning Seminars in June

DAYTON, OH, June 5, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The experienced estate planning attorneys at Lovett & Lovett Co., LPA, a law firm based in Dayton, Ohio, will provide two informative seminars educating guests about estate and Medicaid planning issues, as well as a trust review seminar, in June 2013.

Throughout the year, the experienced estate planning attorneys at Lovett & Lovett Co., LPA, a law firm based in Dayton, Ohio, provide informative seminars educating guests about estate and Medicaid planning issues and solutions.

George Lovett, founding partner of Lovett & Lovett Co., LPA and a Certified Specialist in Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law by the Ohio State Bar Association, will present the firm's June seminars. At the first two seminars, individuals and families will discover how they can successfully pass on their assets, protect themselves and their family through an effective estate plan, and prepare their finances for a prospective stay in a nursing home.

These seminars are free to attend and open to the public. Lovett & Lovett Co., LPA will give two Estate Planning and Medicaid/Nursing Home Planning Issues and Solutions seminars during the month of June:

make the process as easy as possible. Whether you're coming to learn more about estate and Medicaid planning for yourself or for a loved one, we can help you," said George Lovett.

The final June seminar will be a private seminar. At this Trust Review seminar, guests will learn how new tax laws, which went into effect in January, 2013, could significantly affect their trust—resulting in their heirs having to pay thousands of dollars in unnecessary income taxes. Guests will also learn how a trust can pass on their assets in their entirety, protect them in the event of tragedy, and safeguard their heirs from lawsuits, creditors, and other adverse events.
