

Foster Remodeling Solutions Receives Guildmaster Award 2013

Residential design build firm in Northern Virginia among industry leaders in customer service, earning the award for five consecutive years.

LORTON, VA, June 11, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Foster Remodeling Solutions, a residential design build contractor, has been recognized with the 2013 Guildmaster Award for exceptional customer service. The company received the honor from GuildQuality, an independent customer satisfaction survey company, for receiving high ratings from recent clients. Foster Remodeling was among more than 200 remodeling, building, home services and contractor businesses nationwide to receive the award.

The ratings were based on the percentage of survey responses returned by Foster Remodeling clients, as well as the portion of clients who would recommend the Northern Virginia design build firm to others. The company received recommendations from more than 90 percent of its clients who were independently surveyed by GuildQuality.

"We strive to give our clients excellent customer service and the highest quality workmanship in every project that we do, from kitchens to bathrooms to decks and home additions," said David Foster, CR, president of Foster Remodeling Solutions. "This was a true team effort, and I'm very honored that our past clients are pleased with our work."

The company has received the Guildmaster Award for five consecutive years.
