

Best Free Betting Launch New UK Free Bets Website

New online betting website highlights bookmaker free bets and betting promotions for online sports betting fans in United Kingdom.

MANCHESTER, UK, June 18, 2013
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Best Free Betting is proud to announce the launch of their new website.

The website, at www.BestFreeBetting.co.uk, caters for the UK online sports betting market, and showcases free bets, bonuses betting promotions from only the best known and most reputable online bookmakers.

The new website features a smart new design with deep green colours on a black background. This style directly reflects the colour schemes adopted by several leading internet bookmakers, a move which is designed to put visitors immediately at ease. Each page features detailed explanations of the various free bets and bonuses available for each particular product offered by the bookmaker in question, for example sports betting, casino, games or bingo.

Visitors searching for free bets will be able to compare and contrast the latest offers from the biggest names in online betting, including Betfred, Ladbrokes, William Hill and SkyBet.

The site has been able to negotiate exclusive deals with a number of bookmakers which are not available elsewhere. These include enhanced free bets, competitions, prize draws and other incentives for both new and existing customers.

Webmaster Dan Ford said: "I'm delighted with the look and functionality of the new site. We really feel it's going to provide our visitors with exactly what they're looking for, and help them find it as quickly and easily as possible. But we hope to go even further than that, and give people that little bit extra which they won't find at other online betting websites."

This is just one of the ways in which BestFreeBetting.co.uk look to differentiate themselves from rival free betting sites. Mr Ford continued: "We noticed that many other free bets websites simply try to feature every online bookmaker going. However, people told us that they had experienced problems with several less reputable bookmakers, including withdrawal delays or bonuses not being honoured.

“We want to ensure that our visitors are guaranteed a positive experience, so we decided to focus only on the best and most reputable bookmakers – those that we have used ourselves. We've personally opened online betting accounts with every bookmaker we feature, and we've personally claimed the free bets they offer. That's the only way we can genuinely evaluate the level of service they provide.”

By focusing on quality rather than quantity, BestFreeBetting.co.uk hope to build up a reputation as a brand whose recommendations users can trust and rely on.
