

The Light Brothers Announces Updated Website

The Light Brothers' team strives to provide superb service both in store and online, for the best possible experience for every one of our customers.

LOMBARD, ILLINOIS, June 18, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Light Brothers is more than just a light fixture store. Located in the western suburbs, this company strives to serve its customers with the utmost care and concern.

There is an acute attention to detail encompassing every interaction and transaction. In addition to outstanding customer service, The Light Brothers is also distinguished by a rich history.

More than 100 years ago, three Sicilian brothers travelled to New York City in search of the American dream. They established their business in Chicago, and initially the brothers created brass beds. As technology evolved, so did the brothers. The invention of the light bulb inspired them to take a leap of faith and shift their career focus. They succeeded in this transition, and left behind the legacy of The Light Brothers that still exists today.

The Light Brothers continues to evolve just as the original brothers were able to during the company's genesis. Over 30 years ago, the company moved to the current location in Lombard, IL. This development sparked friendly connections between The Light Brothers and surrounding communities. Impressive customer care and a respectable legacy created by The Light Brothers' vibrant history have culminated in yet another exciting new advancement.

The Light Brothers is pleased to announce the company's newly launched website. The updated site encourages optimal customer satisfaction. The options are virtually endless for customer needs. There are thousands of items available to browse and purchase from the comfort of home. The site, lightbrothers.net, has seemingly everything one might need to evolve and update any living space. The Light Brothers website has large selections of ceiling fans, lamps, and lighting fixtures, which are abundantly accessible to customers. When updating any living space, be sure to visit The Light Brothers online or in-store!

About The Light Brothers
