

Ahern & Associates Newsletter Garnishes Praise: CEO Andy Ahern Recognized for His Philanthropic Contributions to Charity by Industry Leaders

Premier transportation analyst and consultant, Ahern & Associates, recognized as much for their contributions to charity as their industry prowess and business expertise.

PHOENIX, AZ, June 19, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One measure of success that truly represents the character and resilience of a business is its willingness to give back to the immediate community. Andy Ahern, CEO of Ahern & Associates, Ltd., has again been recognized for his unending philanthropy as well as his industry savvy by leaders in the transportation industry.

Transportation and trucking industry leaders wrote letters of praise singling out Andy Ahern for his benevolence as much as his business sense, as the Ahern Advisory continues to be a beacon of industry news.

Your passion for feeding the hungry and helping others in their time of need is very evident.”

*President of the Board,
Feeding South Dakota*

“Your passion for feeding the hungry and helping others in their time of need is very evident,” said one Ahern reader who also devotes time to serving as President of the board for the charitable organization, Feeding South Dakota. “St. Mary’s is lucky to have you as an advocate and spokesperson for their mission.”

The Ahern Advisory continues to serve as a leading industry publication, attracting nearly half a million in subscriptions and providing industry insight with a compelling, direct approach to the often confusing world of transportation, trucking, logistics, and business mergers and acquisitions. The newsletter provides current information on industry regulations, from the small family business all the way up to the titans of trucking. Yet, in addition to its astute acumen on acquisitions and logistics, the Ahern Advisory regularly spotlights community involvement and champions charitable causes.
