Tailored Living: Garage Organization in Jacksonville FL

R. Nelson, a Jacksonville resident, recently underwent a garage organization. To hear Nelson tell it, the experience was a positive one.

“My husband and I just built a new two car garage and that left us with an attached three car garage. While looking online, I found an ad for Tailored Living of Jacksonville and called them just to get a price on finishing our attached garage,” Nelson relates.

“Within a couple of days Tim of Tailored Living came out and took measurements and I picked out patterns and cabinets! I can’t begin to elaborate on the service we received from Tailored Living of Jacksonville. They did everything they said they would do and in a very timely manner,” Nelson added.

In addition to delivering on service as requested, Tailored Living offers organization services.

“Tailored Living also has an organizer that comes out and she actually got my husband to throw away a lot of ‘junk’ that he didn’t use or need. I call her a ‘Miracle Worker’ to have done that. He then turned into Mr. Organization and I ended up ordering more cabinets (which are beautiful) so he could have a place for everything and everything in its place! I barely recognize our garage,” she added.

When contacted, a representative from Tailored Living had this to say about the company’s service.

“Garage organization in Jacksonville is our specialty. We greatly appreciate the opportunity to help people throughout Jacksonville and the metro area find a way to best use and organize their spaces.”
