Christopher von Dahm Is Generating Superior Returns Again, This Time At Highwater Capital Fund, LLC

PHILADELPHIA, June 15, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Christopher von Dahm, chose the asset management position at Highwater Capital Fund, LLC, where he is achieving superior returns, again, and this time it's at Highwater Capital Fund, LLC. Mr. von Dahm won the the Midas Touch Award earlier this year beating out top commodities and equities traders worldwide. It seems that everywhere Mr. von Dahm goes he brings the recipe for success and his winning attitude with him. Last year Christopher von Dahm was the manager at another firm that returned more than 20% to their clients through his equities trading and high-yielding bond program that he had in effect for the last five years, up until this year. Earlier this year, Mr. von Dahm advised his clients, and that company, to get out of bonds, and Christopher did too, apparently.

Mr. von Dahm, now the fund manager at Highwater Capital Fund, LLC, is now specializing in investing and trading equities and currencies for the company. This year alone Christopher von Dahm has already booked substantial profits for the company and its investors solely by implementing a trading system where he has been quietly executing and locking in profits for the company month in and month out.

Christopher von Dahm's success has been in a market which has been volatile lately to say the least. Christopher von Dahm explains that "through careful study of the market, there are underlying trends and patterns in the market movements where the profits are being harvested through his system". Mr. von Dahm also explained that when the market shifts, he changes his system to adjust to each shift. Mr. von Dahm said that he has triggers in place which alert him of different market changes which give him notice that it's time to re-adjust the system again.

Christopher von Dahm and Highwater Capital Fund, LLC have been outperforming all of the major indices in 2013, which is bold in itself, considering the run-up in the equity market that we have all seen this year. Christopher von Dahm is a good example of hard work and a sound and disciplined strategy paying off for Highwater Capital Fund, LLC and their investors. Christopher von Dahm worked very hard this year to win the Midas Touch Award, and Highwater Capital Fund, LLC is very pleased to announce his management on their team, said one analyst. Now, he needs to continue the hard and long hours to retain his throne at Highwater Capital Fund, LLC, and the Midas Touch Award. www.highwatercapitalfund.com
