New American Funding, a national mortgage lender, is pleased to announce that Amy Scruggs has joined the company as a Business Development Manager for the San Diego region.

Amy began her career in the real estate industry as a Wholesale Lending Account Executive with CitiFinancial

Wholesale Lending where she was the top in her field. Later she joined Aegis Mortgage where she rose to the position of Regional Sales Manager. Most recently, Amy was an Account Executive with an Escrow company where she was responsible for all marketing and sales in Orange and San Diego counties.

In addition to her professional experience in real estate, Amy is a nationally known country music artist. She has opened for several prominent country music artists and has been featured in several national magazines, along with receiving notices in the national press and radio.

Amy cares deeply about veterans issues and has cultivated relationships with numerous military and veterans organizations. She has performed at scores of their events, including Deployment and Coming Home ceremonies, and at the 10 year anniversary of 9/11 at Dodger Stadium. She was also selected as the Spokesperson and Sponsored Artist for the American Veterans (AMVETS) of California from 2009 through 2011.

Amy has also fostered professional relationships with the San Diego Association of Realtors and with the Chambers of Commerce in both Orange and San Diego counties. She is affiliated with the Kiwanis organization and is a committee member of the National Association of Hispanic Real Estate Professionals (NAHREP) of North San Diego County.

“I am very pleased to be joining New American Funding,” said Scruggs. “I intend to bring all of my experience and passion to the position, and to utilize all my professional connections to develop new business on the company's behalf."
