Fancy Pink Diamonds for investment are LOW RISK, HIGH SECURITY

Fancy Pink Diamonds are LOW RISK, HIGH SECURITY – RRIDs are carefully hand-selected by Raiman Rocks based on a unique set of attributes that qualify them as being Raiman Rocks investment grade diamonds. This limited and highly-elite class of diamonds has not gone down in value for over 25 years and includes both high quality colorless diamonds and natural fancy pink diamonds for investment.

A fancy pink diamond for investment is a rare investment that's natural beauty represents both love and profitability, fancy pink diamonds have become the most desirable of all natural fancy color pink diamonds for investment. Natural fancy pink diamonds are the rarest of all natural fancy colors, and therefore they are also the most expensive, recently selling for as much as $2 Million per carat.

Unlike most other natural fancy colors, there is no color grading scale for pink diamonds. All fancy pink diamonds for investment are considered pink "Fancy". All diamonds lighter than fancy pink are considered pink to be a part of the pink diamond color scale.

Because fancy pink diamonds for investment are extremely rare, much thought goes into the cutting process in order to maximize the intensity of color within the diamond. It's very common for diamond cutters to study a rough uncut pink diamond for many months before beginning the cutting process. As in most fancy colors, the shapes that bring out the most intense colors are the radiant cut, the cushion cut, and the round brilliant cut.
