

Mumbai Based 'App Company' Launches iPhone/iPad Application for Google Person Finder

A Mobile Phone application that helps people reconnect with friends and loved ones in the aftermath of natural and humanitarian disaster is now a reality.

DETROIT, MICHIGAN, July 8, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mumbai Based software startup 'App Company', has launched "Person Finder: reconnect with missing friends and loved one's" an iPhone/iPad application for Google Person Finder. This Mobile Application provides a message board for survivors, family and loved ones to post and search for information about each other's safety and whereabouts. It not only enables the public in general but also allows the authorities to reach its people in a quick and organized fashion by updating information about the rescued using a mobile device.

Governments and non-profit organizations all over the globe can use this tool to reach the masses in case of natural calamities or human disasters. The iOS application has been approved and tested by the official person finder organization and has been developed as a free tool contribution of technology to humanity.

With the iPhone application, App Company has also launched a mobile web tool which reformats the 'Google Person finder' for mobile compatibility view that can be installed on any mobile/tablet device. This is very useful for the people who do not have iPhone devices. The company also plans to bring native mobile application for all the devices soon.
