

First Contact- UNESCO Chauvet Cave

Unesco Chauvet Cave has a "Chariot of Fire" finger fluted in the Hillaire Chamber. UFO hunters have cited this Bible Story as proof of Aliens.

NEW HAVEN CONNECTICUT, July 12, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- UNESCO Chauvet Cave is in France on the Ardeche' River, about 45 Kilometers up from the Mediterranean Sea. Discovered in 1994, it was immediately locked down. A replica is scheduled to open nearby in 2014. Metaphysical Expert and Knight of Columbus

Scripture Scholar, Sir Knight Daryl Breese translated most of this 37,000 year old Shamanic Art from the Dawn of Humanity.

Breese, and French Canadian, Gerald D'Aoust- who identified the Pegasus in Chauvet, have both published "God's Steed- Key to World Peace" in 2011. It was used as the primary reference for these metaphysical art translations. The Chauvet Pegasus graces the book's cover. The graphic art stories in Chauvet are shown repeating through traditional stories and into the written word of all religions, over 30,000 years later. Creation mural; flood epic; first Venus; first centaur; first evidence of horse sacrifice; and more. Breese and D'Aoust traced all peoples back to this shared ancient point.

Breese noted the "Cave of Forgotten Dreams" documentary by Werner Herzog in 2012 censored out some very special art. The "Chariot of the Gods" graphic in the Hillaire Chamber is prominent in the Bible. Already well known to UFO hunters- and now, shown painted at the dawn of humanity. In 2008, Pope Benedict said that alien life was possible. This evidence should fuel the Alien or Angel debate. Will the replica replicate this?
