

StayDry Waterproofing Supports Endeavor House Fundraiser With $3,000 Service Donation

LANSING, MI, July 16, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- StayDry Waterproofing, Michigan's award-winning basement waterproofing company recently offered a donation of $3,000 to support Endeavor House Ministries' silent auction and annual fundraiser.

StayDry Waterproofing, Michigan's award-winning basement waterproofing company, has donated $3000 in services to Endeavor House Ministries, which will be auctioned off during the agency's upcoming 2013 Donor Appreciation Banquet and Silent Auction.

Endeavor House Ministries is based in Lansing, MI and is a 501c3 non-profit organization. Its focus is "Christ Centered," and its mission is to serve as a community-based transitional house program where people with life controlling issues can come and live in a safe drug and alcohol free environment.

The close ties between Endeavor House and StayDry Waterproofing blossomed with a little "talk around town" that eventually led Endeavor House's Jim Dunn to the front door of StayDry and the office of its owner, Dave Brown.

"I heard that Dave Brown was a man that liked people," said Dunn. "I just came to his office to tell him about our program at Endeavor House. Dave instantly welcomed me in and we soon realized that we were like-minded. He shortly after donated a basement waterproofing system to be auctioned at our 8th annual banquet."

StayDry Waterproofing is an industry leader in the basement waterproofing business.
