

Mister Sewer in Mt. Lebanon, PA, Advises Homeowners on How to Avoid Sewer Repair Scams

MT. LEBANON, PA, July 17, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mister Sewer is a licensed, bonded and insured company with an honest reputation in the Mt. Lebanon, PA, area. References are available for their trenchless or "no dig" sewer repairs that can save homeowners the trouble and expense of disruptive excavation.

Mister Sewer advises homeowners who need sewer services in Mt. Lebanon to make sure they request and check-out references for companies who recommend costly drain repairs in Mt. Lebanon. Mister Sewer maintains that homeowners often get scammed by untrustworthy sewer repair companies because they don't know the right questions to ask or are overwhelmed with the problem.

Mister Sewer provides honest repair services in Mt. Lebanon, PA.

"It is important for homeowners to choose a dependable and honest company before they sign up for sewer line repairs in Mt. Lebanon. Many homeowners, especially with older homes, don't often realize the importance of sewer inspections," said Jason Daugherty, company spokesperson.

Mister Sewer wants homeowners to protect themselves against sewer scams by companies who don't provide references and whose price quotes seem unusually high. In addition, the company in question should explain exactly what services they suggest are needed and provide a warranty on each service.

For more than 25 years, Mister Sewer has been serving Mt. Lebanon and the surrounding area, and has become the area's leading experts in trenchless sewer repair. The company has a reputation for providing honest, prompt and courteous sewer and drain service in Mt. Lebanon. Mister Sewer technicians use a camera sewer inspection to determine the nature of the problem and the best way to fix it quickly. This inspection helps them see how much of the pipe needs cleaning and replacing. By using this technology to view the full scope of the problem, they give customers more accurate estimates as to how long it will take to fix the problem and the cost of the repair.

The company even goes so far as to suggest the property owner get a copy of the DVD that shows the entire video camera inspection of the sewer line, and to make sure that the DVD they receive is definitely a view of their property. Lastly, Mister Sewer advises homeowners if they are at all unsure about the company they are interviewing, to get a second opinion and to make sure each company inspector has adequately explained his findings.

Sewer line repair scams are costly. The best protection against scams is a solid education, so Mister Sewer wants homeowners to make sure they understand the situation precisely before they make any major decisions.
