

Brown Logistics Services has Partnered up with 10-4 Systems to Offer REAL-TIME Carrier Solutions

Brown Logistics Services and 10-4 Systems have partnered to provide REAL-TIME Solutions for the Transportation Industry.

BOULDER, CO, USA, July 23, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Brown Logistics Services, a division of Brown Integrated Logistics, Inc., (<http://www.brownintegratedlogistics.com/about-us.aspx>) a provider of world-class services including third party logistics, brokerage, warehousing, fleet maintenance and dedicated trucking announced today that they have partnered with 10-4 Systems (www.10-4.com) to provide their customers access to the FIRST and ONLY Real-Time Transportation Marketplace. Brown Logistics' President Daniel Lett stated today that, "We want to provide leading edge technology that will help his customer's succeed and as a part of a larger strategic plan."

Mr. Lett stated that, "10-4 will provide a better broker – carrier relationship through real-time notifications of freight opportunities and the elimination of phone calls, faxes, EDI, and searching of load boards. The savings in time and hassle that 10-4 provides is something that both carriers and brokers have wanted for a long time." Mr. Lett added, "given that 10-4 services are core to carriers and are provided at no cost we felt we just couldn't wait any longer."
