

Macro Sensors Introduces New LVDT Position Sensors Blog

LVDT Position Sensors Blog

PENNSAUKEN, NJ, USA, July 23, 2013 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Macro Sensors extends its conversation on LVDT Linear Position Technology with customers and prospects through its LVDT Linear Position Sensor Blog. The company will discuss technology, trends, customer applications and other news relating to the use and innovation of LVDT Position Sensors and related instrumentation.

The first blog entitled Going Digital discusses the advantages offered by digital output and how that can be derived from any standard linear position sensor. It can be accessed at: here. We invite you to repost our blogs and follow our conversation at: www.macrosensors.com/blog/
